RESOLUTIONS

OF THE
GENERAL MEETING,

HELD

On Thursday, June 22, 1826, at Great Queen Street Chapel:

JOSEPH GUTTERIDGE, Esq.

IN THE CHAIR.

Moved by the Rev. Dr. STEADMAN of Bradford, seconded by the Rev. C. E. BIRT, M.A. of Derby,

I. That the Report now read be adopted and circulated under the direction of the Committee; and that this Meeting thankfully acknowledges the proofs of Divine favour and protection which have been afforded to the Society, and desires that these may prove effectual motives to more extensive exertions to convey the knowledge of Christ to the multitudes of our fellow men, still involved in error, and the most debasing superstition.

Moved by the Rev. JAMES PEGGS, General Baptist Missionary from Orissa, seconded by the Rev. GEORGE BROWNE of Clapham,

II. That this Meeting is deeply sensible of the kindness shewn by the Ministers and other individuals, who have assisted in various ways, to procure pecuniary aid for the Society, during the past year, and trusts that the present low state of the funds will lead all who value the object to which its labours are directed, to vigorous efforts to replenish them.

Moved by the Rev. JOSEPH KINGHORN of Norwich, seconded by the Rev. EUSTACE CAREY from Calcutta,

III. That as inconveniences have been found to arise from the small number of Members composing the Central Committee, the following alterations be made in the "Plan of the Society," viz. in Rule V. for "fifty," to read "eighty;" and in Rule VII. to insert the words "twenty-five," instead of "twenty-one," and "sixteen," instead of "twelve;" adding also, "the Committee to be empowered to fill up, pro tempore, any vacancies from death or resignation," and that the Corresponding Committee be henceforth discontinued.*

Moved by the Rev. JOSHUA MARSHMAN, D.D. from Scram-pore, seconded by the Rev. Mr. REES, of the Wesleyan Society, Plan of the Society.

I. The name by which the Society has been, and still is designated, is, "The Particular Baptist Society for propagating the Gospel among the Heathen;" or, "The Baptist Missionary Society."

II. The great object of this Society is the diffusion of the knowledge of the religion of Jesus Christ through the heathen world, by means of the preaching of the Gospel, the translation and publication of the Holy Scriptures, and the establishment of Schools.

III. All persons subscribing 10s. 6d. per annum, donors of £10. or upwards, and Ministers making annual collections on behalf of the Society, are considered as Members thereof.

IV. A General Meeting of the Society shall be annually held; at which the Committee and Officers shall be chosen for the year ensuing, the Auditors of Accounts appointed, and any other business pertaining to the Society transacted.

V. A General Committee, consisting of eighty Members, shall be appointed for the purpose of circulating Missionary Intelligence, and promoting the Interests of the Society in their respective neighbourhoods; nine-tenths of whom shall be eligible for re-election for the ensuing year.

VI. A Central Committee shall be formed out of the General Committee, more immediately to conduct the affairs of the Society: which Committee shall meet monthly, in London, on a fixed day, for the despatch of business.

VII. Besides the Treasurer and Secretaries of the Society, who shall be considered Members, ex officio, the Central Committee shall consist of twenty-five persons; of whom sixteen shall be resident in London, or its immediate vicinity, and nine in the country; five Members to be deemed a quorum. The Committee to be empowered to fill up, pro tempore, any vacancies from death or resignation.

VIII. All Members of the General Committee shall be entitled to attend and vote at the meetings of the Central Committee; and whenever the attendance of any Member or Members shall be particularly desirable, the Central Committee shall be empowered to request such attendance; in which case, the Member or Members so invited shall be considered as part of the quorum.

IX. All monies received on behalf of the Society shall be lodged in the hands of the Treasurer; and when the amount shall exceed £300, it shall be invested in the public funds, in the names of four Trustees to be chosen by the Society, until required for the use of the Mission.

Forms of Bequest.

FOR THE GENERAL PURPOSES OF THE SOCIETY.

I give out of my monies, or personal estate, unto the Treasurer, for the time being, of the Baptist Missionary Society, the sum of _____ for the use of such Society. And I declare that the Receipt of such Treasurer shall be a sufficient discharge for the same.

FOR PROMOTING THE TRANSLATION OF THE SCRIPTURES.

I give out of my monies, or personal estate, unto the Treasurer, for the time being, of the Baptist Missionary Society, the sum of _____ to be applied for the sole purpose of promoting the Translation and Printing the Scriptures. And I declare that the Receipt of such Treasurer shall be a sufficient discharge for the same.

. Those friends who wish to promote the extension of Native Schools, may, by distinctly stating their desire, effectually secure the application of their contributions or bequests to that specific object.

All persons who may have bequeathed to the Baptist Missionary Society, Legacies payable out of the late 5 per Cent. Bank Annuities, are hereby respectfully requested to provide a substitute in their Wills, or by Codicils thereto, out of some other part of their Personal Estate. And further, that in all bequests of Stock, there be superadded, that in case there shall not be any, or sufficient money in the Stock named in the Will or Codicil to pay the said Legacy, that the same be paid out of the residue of the Testator's Personal Estate.

REPORT.

ANOTHER year having performed its hasty round, the Committee of the Baptist Missionary Society proceed to lay before their friends and constituents, a brief statement of the principal events which have occurred, in relation to the Society, during that period. A faithful narrative of those facts, compressed within the scanty limits of a Report, may present nothing to excite surprise and astonishment; but if it convince candid and intelligent Christians that the operations of the Society, do, in some humble measure, serve to extend the boundaries of that kingdom which cometh not with observation, ample ground will be laid for renewed thanksgivings to God, and we shall not plead in vain, with those who love the Saviour, for persevering and effectual support.

Commencing as usual, with the subordinate stations in the province of Bengal, we learn, from accounts very recently arrived from Serampore, that at Dinagepore, one of the first places visited by the gospel, the prospect continues to be highly pleasing. Mr. FERNANDEZ, the aged pastor, assisted by the native preacher, NIDHIRAM, employs every evening of the week, besides maintaining the regular services of the sabbath, in giving religious instruction to his flock; and the benefits are so apparent as to attract the notice and commendation of those who have no connexion with the Missionary cause. A whole family, consisting of eight persons, have lately thrown off caste at this station; seven members have been added to the church, and five more were candidates for the same privilege.

The hands of Mr. LEONARD, at Dacca, have lately been strengthened by the accession of Mr. D'CRUZ from Serampore. Mrs. PEACOCK, also, the widow of our deceased Missionary, has gone thither to take charge of the female schools.

Several interviews have been held by our friends at this station with the Suttia Gooroos, a singular sect of Hindoos, who have renounced idols, and profess to approve Christianity, of which through the medium of the Scriptures in their own language, they have acquired considerable knowledge. While these have excited some hope, Mr. LEONARD has been encouraged in his exertions for the young, by pleasing evidence that two of his pupils have died in the faith of Christ.

In Jessore, amidst much prejudice and many discouragements, Mr. THOMAS, and six natives under his direction, have continued to proclaim the good news of salvation. In this district four schools have lately been erected and endowed by the resident English gentlemen and native land-holders, which are to be supplied with masters from the college at Serampore.

Two or three persons have been added to the church at Delhi, under the care of Mr. THOMPSON, who continues to employ much of his time in itinerating through a wide extent of country, distributing tracts, and conversing about the gospel. These exertions have at least the effect of exciting attention to the great truths of revelation; and the statement made by a respectable native for himself, may be regarded as descriptive of a numerous class of his countrymen, thus partially informed. "I say truly," said he to Mr. THOMPSON, "I have a love for the things contained in your books; but I have little faith yet; when I have more faith I will say more to you." At Allahabad, the prospect appears to be brightening: a church has been formed, consisting of nine members, among whom are two or three pious Europeans. Five Hindoo youth are reading the New Testament with Mr. MACKINTOSH; who, besides his labours at home, has had opportunities of diffusing the gospel very widely at the fairs and large assemblies annually held in that part of the country. Mr. RICHARDS, at Futtyghur, has great facilities for dispersing the Scriptures, though he has been prevented by illness from exerting himself so actively as he could desire. From Benares, the head quarters of Brahminical superstition, the intelligence is pleasing. "The work of the Lord," writes Mr. SMITH, in April 1825, "is prospering here. I find the heathen very attentive to the gospel; last month I baptized Mr. S. a serious young man, and four persons gave in their names as candidates for the ordinance; a Heathen, a Mussulman, and two Roman Catholics. The good people here, (referring to Missionary brethren, from other Societies), all live in union, which is a great blessing. At the assemblies of the heathen, we all meet together, reading, singing, speaking, and giving away books to those who apply for them, or are able to read them." Voluntary drownings, he remarks elsewhere, are less frequent than formerly; and it should appear, from an anecdote in Mr. SMITH'S journal, that even in this holy city, and among Brahmins too, idols are falling into disrepute. "I asked a Brahmin," says he, "why they took no notice of some stone gods lying under a wall. We worshipped them several years," answered the Brahmin, "but not deriving any benefit, we laid them aside, knowing they are but stones, and are not able to do good or evil."

Mr. WILLIAM CAREY, who, for fourteen years, has been stationed at Cutwa, laments that although his hearers are often deeply affected under the word, instances of conversion are few; still, those who have been united in church fellowship afford him pleasure by their general steadiness and consistency. Mrs. CAREY has endeavoured to revive the female school at this station, but hitherto can procure none but the children of native Christians—the prejudices of the heathen, stronger in this distant part of the province than in Calcutta and its environs, not allowing them to send their daughters. That part of the church, formerly under Mr. CAREY'S care, situate in the district of Beerbhoom, is now supplied by Mr. WILLIAMSON, from Serampore.

In reference to the station just mentioned, from which, for so many years, the word of God has sounded forth into all the region round about, more ample information than we can supply will probably be communicated, in person, at this anniversary by one of our esteemed brethren (Dr. MARSHMAN), who has long taken a very active share in its concerns. Death has again been commissioned to lessen the number of labourers here: KOMUL, a native preacher, having died in July, and Mr. ALBRECHT who, in 1824, accompanied Mr. JOHN

MARSHMAN to India, being removed within three months afterwards. Of KOMUL, no particulars have been received ; but in Mr. ALBRECHT our brethren have lost a coadjutor of much promise. He was educated at the Missionary Seminary at Basle, under the pious Dr. BLUMHARDT, and from the continent of Europe, as well as from his more recent connexions in India, we have received high testimonies to his literary attainments and eminent piety. That instruments, apparently so well adapted for the great work of evangelizing the world, should be scarcely allowed to commence their operations, ere they are summoned to discontinue them for ever, is a mystery too deep for us to fathom. But this also is a part of his ways, who is excellent in counsel, as well as mighty in work.

Our brethren at Serampore report that the stations more immediately in connexion with themselves have, from the beginning of 1825, been placed under the superintendence of the college. They acknowledge, in one of their recent publications, the assistance rendered in 1824, on account of these stations, from the funds of the Society, to the amount of £1000 ; since which a second donation of similar value has been forwarded on the same account.

At Calcutta, the Church in the Lal Bazar, hitherto under the care of the Serampore brethren, have with the full concurrence of their former pastors, invited Mr. ROBINSON, who, it was stated in our last Report, had arrived there from Sumatra, to assume the charge over them. He has accepted the invitation, and there is reason to hope this step will be followed by a revival of religion among them. To our venerable friend, Dr. CAREY, this arrangement appears to have been particularly desirable, as it leaves him more at liberty to prosecute those very important biblical labours to which his life has been devoted ; and which, notwithstanding his advanced age, he is enabled to pursue with vigour and success. The last communication received from him, dated in December, 1825, gives a cheering account of his continued health ; and in the same letter he states his view of Missionary labours in general, by saying, " I believe the work of God is considerably on the increase."

Our junior brethren in Calcutta have still had to drink of the cup of affliction. In consequence of illness, by which his exertions had long been impeded, one of their number, Mr. EUSTACE CAREY, has revisited his native land, and appears among us this day. May it please God to restore and strengthen him for much service in years to come! But to all his former associates in Bengal he never can return. One of the little band, Mr. LAWSON, closed his earthly career in October last, exemplifying in death the firm supports and joyful triumphs of that Gospel he had long dispensed with faithfulness and affection to others. Men of piety in Calcutta, of every denomination, felt that in him they had lost a brother and a friend; while an affectionate widow and numerous family have still deeper reason to mourn the painful stroke. From the Father of mercies may they receive all the consolation their circumstances demand!

While the Providence of God is thus diminishing our Missionary strength in Calcutta, and we are called upon to use our utmost exertions to send help to our brethren, it is gratifying to find that some on the spot are raised up to unite with them in their labours. The adoption of Mr. KIRKPATRICK as a Missionary was mentioned in our last Report; since which, a Mr. FENWICK, who resides at Chinsurah, and has long approved himself a man of Christian zeal, has been engaged, on behalf of the Society, to render his assistance in itinerating among the heathen. He speaks with fluency the Bengalee and Hindosthanee, and his journals prove that he possesses the far higher qualifications of an enlightened understanding and devotional spirit. Several additions have been made to the Church in the Circular Road during the last year, among whom were two Roman Catholics, led to embrace the Gospel by the instrumentality of native preachers! Another individual, named SUKHAREE, of whom an account has already appeared in the Missionary Herald, though he had never been admitted into the Church, afforded good reason to hope that he expired in the faith; while, among the youth educated in the Benevolent Institution, the progress of Divine Truth is very encouraging. At Doorgapore, a number of poor natives, of the lowest class, whose conduct had always been so riotous and disorderly as greatly to annoy the Missionaries resident there, have come forward, of their own accord, to request that a service might be held once a week for their accommodation, and have even offered, out of their poverty, to defray the expense of lighting the chapel on the evenings when they assemble. Incidents of this kind tend to revive and cheer the spirits of a Missionary, when appalled and distressed by the awful mass of ignorance and of guilt surrounding him on every side; while the experience of each revolving year serves more deeply to implant the conviction that nothing short of a more abundant effusion of the Holy Spirit from on high, will render Missionary labours generally successful, and fulfil those hopes which Christian benevolence delights to cherish.

Respecting the Female Schools, such repeated and particular information has been given through the usual channel, that it is only necessary to state in general terms that their progress is highly satisfactory and encouraging. We may add, as a proof of the extent to which the native mind has been roused to seek information, and of the means which are at work to supply it, that in the course of the last year no less than 30 new publications, on various subjects, issued from the native Bengalee press; of which it is computed that 1000 copies on the average were printed.

At Digah, JHURREELAL, one of the schoolmasters employed under the direction of Mrs. ROWE, has renounced caste, and desires baptism. His wife and family, consisting of five females, regularly attend to hear the Scriptures read. In the Schools at this station 164 boys are now receiving instruction; and no less than 120 girls have enjoyed similar advantages, several of whom have appeared to be the subjects of a saving change. The number of Schools might easily be enlarged, if adequate means were provided, since prejudice has so far given way, that the native landholders come forward to solicit them. Mr. MOORE has not removed to Digah, as was expected last year, but Mr. BURTON has gone thither, having been under the painful necessity of quitting Sebolga.

The favorable anticipations in our last Report respecting the station at Monghyr, have been fully realized. To the small church under the care of Mr. LESLIE, nine persons have been added, some of whom formed striking instances of the power of divine grace in renewing those who seemed the least likely to yield to its influence. Thirteen schools are now in operation here, the number having been lately increased at the request of Mahommedan parents, who now permit their children to read those Christian books, the use of which heretofore was an effectual bar to their entering the schools. An alteration equally favorable has taken place in the general conduct of the native population. Instead of vulgar abuse, the brethren who itinerate among them, are heard with serious attention ; so that, under the divine blessing, we may trust the word of God, at Monghyr, and its neighbourhood, will still grow and prevail.

War, with all its attendant evils, has been permitted to ravage the district of Chittagong, and to disperse the numerous church, formed there among the Mugs. Still they have retained their attachment to the means of grace ; and since the conclusion of peace between the Burmese and our Indian government, these poor people, who were originally refugees from the neighbouring province of Arracan, now ceded to the British, have returned thither in a body, with their pastor at their head. Thus, in a most unexpected way, a new and easy access is obtained into the Burman empire ; and from the relative position of that country to China, it seems not at all improbable that ere long the extensive frontier of that vast and populous region, may be laid open to the Gospel.

Respecting our American brethren in Burmah, Mr. JUDSON and Dr. PRICE, whose situation has long been a matter of painful uncertainty, authentic intelligence may now be daily expected.

From Ceylon, additions are reported, both to the church in Colombo, under the care of Mr. CHATER, and to that at Hanwell, over which Mr. SIERS presides. The schools belonging to the Mission, have fluctuated much from sickness and other causes. Mr. CHATER has published a free translation of Alleine's Alarm, in the Portuguese language ; and has been appointed Secretary to a Religious Tract Society recently formed in Colombo. It is pleasing to add that much harmony appears to prevail among the various classes of Christians engaged in Missionary Service in Ceylon.

After a long series of diligent exertions among the Javanese, attended with little apparent benefit, Mr. BRUCKNER has been driven from his post on the eastern side of the island, by a formidable insurrection of the natives against their Dutch masters. He has repaired, for the present, to Batavia, where he will be able most efficiently to superintend the printing of the New Testament into the Javanese language, for which purpose a lithographic press was sent thither some time ago. Mr. DIERING, who was baptized at Batavia, by Mr. ROBINSON, and has been, in various ways, useful to the Missionary cause in that city, was removed, after a short illness, in October last.

It was intimated, in our last Report, that the cession of Sumatra to the Dutch government would probably have an important influence on our various Missionary stations in that island; and the events which have since occurred, leave little ground for hope that our brethren can remain there with any prospect of advantage. In the north, such success has attended the warlike operations of a set of insurgent reformers, called Padries, that Mr. BURTON, with his family, and the females of the Orphan Institution under Mrs. BURTON's care, were obliged, from regard to personal safety, to leave Sebolga in July last, and they reached Calcutta, after a perilous voyage, in the following month. The timid Bataks, among whom he had been stationed, had all determined to become Mussulmans, when their invaders took possession of their country. At the period of his quitting Sebolga, Mr. BURTON was engaged in compiling a Dictionary, English, Malay, and Batak, having previously completed his translation of the Gospel of St. John. Whether it may, in some future day, be permitted him to resume his exertions on behalf of this portion of the heathen world, it is not for us to determine. We have reason for thankfulness, that life and health have been continued, and that a sphere has opened before him, on British territory, as we have before stated, under the head of Digah, where such obstacles as he has hitherto had to encounter are not likely to recur.

Padang being the seat of European power, Mr. EVANS has not been exposed to the same dangers as Mr. BURTON. By the members of Government he has been treated with much personal respect; and they have shown themselves friendly to the work of education: but, in compliance with the obstinate prejudices of the natives, such restrictions have been laid upon the higher and nobler object of a Christian Missionary—the direct promulgation of the gospel—that the Committee have deemed it incumbent on them to direct Mr. EVANS also to proceed to Bengal, and unite with his brethren in cultivating that more promising field. Mr. Ward remains for the present, in Bencoolen, where he superintends the schools formed under the enlightened administration of Sir Stamford Raffles, and has opportunities of circulating the tracts and other scriptural publications compiled in Malay, by Mr. Robinson.

WEST INDIES.

Our Mission in Jamaica has been distinguished by the same general features as in former years. The most encouraging proofs have been afforded of a divine blessing; while these have been combined with afflictions and bereavements emphatically reminding us that our confidence must never be placed in an arm of flesh, but in Him who employs subordinate instruments, or lays them aside, according to his will.

Mr. COULTART has continued to receive many additions to the church at Kingston over which he presides; and though instances too frequently occur of those who, after professing the name of Christ, turn from the holy commandment delivered unto them, yet the great majority stand fast. On the first Sabbath in the present year, 2000 communicants met in his spacious chapel to partake of the supper of the Lord. Upwards of sixty had joined the Church a few days before; and the accounts given, by the candidates, on such occasions, of the operations of divine truth upon their hearts, are often such as to awaken the liveliest sentiments of gratitude and joy. The daily school, under the judicious management of Mr. KNIBB, has greatly increased; besides which, there is a Sunday school of 200 children, who are taught by the most respectable members of the Church and congregation. But amidst this extensive sphere of usefulness, Mr. COULTART has been called to sustain much affliction. The health of Mrs. COULTART has again gradually declined, and after having tried every expedient which could be adopted on the island, she has been compelled to return to this country. Mr. COULTART still remains at his station, but his continuance there, under such circumstances, must of course be uncertain.

The Church and congregation, under the care of Mr. TINSON, are also in a prosperous state, though the situation of the Chapel is less favourable for a large attendance than Mr. COULTART'S.

At Spanish Town, we are gratified to state, the impediments mentioned in our last Report, have been removed. When His Majesty's Government were informed of the demand made on Mr. PHILIPPO for military service, immediate directions were sent out for his exemption; and we trust that this proof of liberal attention to Christian Missionaries in our colonies may prevent the recurrence of such requisitions in future. Several leading individuals in the town have encouraged Mr. PHILIPPO in his labours, and he is now engaged in the erection of a more commodious place of worship to receive his increasing congregation. Sixty persons were added to his Church a few months since, and thirty more were baptized at Old Harbour. The school, under the immediate superintendence of Mr. PHILIPPO, contains 140 pupils, of whom 30 are from Jewish families; and he has formed also a large institution on the Lancasterian plan, the care of which principally devolves upon himself. The bare enumeration of these engagements will be enough to show how urgently help is required at this station; and we trust that, by this time, it is afforded, Mr. BAYLIS, one of the last Missionaries who sailed for Jamaica, having been sent out with that view.

The new station at Anotta Bay has proved a scene of mournful bereavement. The prospects there were decidedly pleasing; the Church had increased from forty to upwards of one hundred members; the school for negro children was well attended, and promised to be highly beneficial; when sickness, which during the last season, has been unusually prevalent in Jamaica, was permitted to visit the dwelling of our Missionary there, Mr. PHILLIPS, and to hurry both himself and his affectionate partner to the silent grave! Their orphan child has since arrived in England, and Mr. and Mrs. FLOOD have proceeded to occupy the post thus rendered vacant. They will not, however, reside on the Bay; but at the premises, belonging to the Society, at Mount Charles; a spot which is said to be more healthy than the Bay. It is intended that Mr. Flood shall include both places in the sphere of his labours.

The ministry of Mr. BURCHELL has been honoured with much success, both at Montego Bay and Crooked Spring; and such is the eagerness of the negroes to hear the word, that many have travelled repeatedly ten, fifteen, or twenty miles for that purpose; and all in vain, the place of worship being too small to admit them. Such was the pressure, on one occasion, that the building was seriously endangered, and the congregation had to secure their safety by a precipitate flight. At other towns in the neighbourhood, a similar desire appears to prevail. Urgent applications have been made to Mr. BURCHELL to visit them, or procure them a Missionary. Nor have these solicitations been confined to the negroes. A proprietor resident in the neighbourhood, having purchased an estate in the parish of Westmorland, surrounded by many thousand slaves without any religious instruction, has liberally proposed to give a spot of land for a Missionary station, provided the Society will occupy it for that purpose. Thus the fields, in this part of the island, seem white unto harvest; but here, also, God in his Providence has seen fit to interpose a check, though we trust but a temporary one. The health of Mr. BURCHELL has proved unequal to his abundant labours, and after being repeatedly laid aside, he was directed to take a voyage as the only means of preserving his life. A most favourable opportunity offering at the time, he prudently embraced it; and arrived a few days since, having found the voyage very beneficial.

At Belize, in the Bay of Honduras, Mr. BOURN has continued, notwithstanding frequent indisposition, to prosecute the great and important objects of his Mission. In these, he derives much assistance from one of his friends, a man of colour, who is acquainted with the French and Spanish languages, as well as the Indian spoken on the coast, and is diligently employed in preaching and holding prayer meetings among the people in different parts of the neighbourhood. The number of communicants has increased from four to twelve, and the attendance at the Chapel is good.

A correspondence has been kept up, through the medium of our esteemed friend, the Rev. W. H. ANGAS, with Mr. SCHLATTER, who still remains among the Nogay Tartars, near the sea of Azof. It seems probable that the obstacles which have hitherto prevented his appearing more publicly in the character of a Christian Missionary may soon be removed; and that he may devote himself entirely to the work of God, for which he appears to be so eminently qualified.

Having thus hastily sketched the principal facts of which we have had information from abroad, we proceed, in a few words, to specify what has been done at home.

The Committee have had the pleasure of sending help, which has been long needed, both to the East and West Indies; Messrs. THOMAS and PEARCE, with their wives, having just embarked for Calcutta, and Mr. and Mrs. FLOOD, Mr. and Mrs. BAYLIS, and Mr. JAMES MANN, a few weeks since, for Jamaica. For the latter a free passage was granted by the kindness of Messrs. ANGAS & Co. whose truly Christian liberality in this respect we have previously had frequent occasion to record. A considerable number of applications from young men willing to engage in missionary service, have been received; some of which are under consideration. Three candidates have been admitted on probation, who give reason to hope that God has designed them for usefulness in years to come.

Besides these, two German youth of intelligence and piety are under instruction in Switzerland, with a view to their promoting the interests of the Society, either as Missionaries abroad, or in making known its object and advocating its claims among the numerous Menonite churches scattered throughout the northern parts of Europe.

From the unexampled state of commercial embarrassment into which the country has been thrown for several months, and from which it has not yet recovered, our friends will not be surprised to hear that the receipts of the Society have fallen considerably below the amount of the preceding year. It is, however, proper to add, that the ordinary sources of income have been affected even less than might have been anticipated—the difference being principally in the amount of extra donations and legacies, which must always be uncertain and variable; and which, in the year 1824 were unusually large. Still, to a point so intimately connected with the extension and prosperity of the cause, the Committee feel it incumbent on them to direct the attention of their friends and the christian public in general. In no year of its history, probably, has the Society lost so many of its kind and liberal supporters by death, while others no longer possess the ability to render it pecuniary aid. But are there not many, both in town and country, well able to subscribe to the Society, who have not yet justly appreciated its claims upon them? Are there not some among our brethren in the ministry, whose exertions in their respective neighbourhoods would be highly valuable, if they would favour the Society by making them? Whatever measures the acting Committee can adopt, with the approbation of their coadjutors through the country, to render the funds of the Institution more commensurate with its great object, will be tried; but the success of such measures must, after all, under the divine blessing, depend on the zealous and affectionate co-operation of our churches at large. And, surely, the experience of the past, and the prospects of the future—the precepts of divine authority, and the promises of divine mercy, enforced as they are by the wretched condition of the heathen world, and the manifest adaptation of the means we employ for their deliverance from it—will not urge an ineffectual plea. Other Institutions, formed for a similar purpose, grow, from year to year, in the extent of their resources, and are enabled, consequently, to multiply their efforts to do good; and shall our Society remain stationary or decline? May the answer to this appeal, from every heart in this assembly, and through a much wider circuit, be such as the Saviour himself shall dictate and approve?

In aid of the Translations of the Holy Scriptures, two donations of £300 each have been forwarded by the Edinburgh Bible Society. The sum of £200 has also been contributed by THOMAS KEY, Esq. of Water Fulford, whose liberality we have before had such frequent occasion to notice. The Netherlands Auxiliary Society have renewed their annual donation of £200; and at the instance of the gentlemen in Jamaica, who act as agents for the New England Society, and who are well acquainted with the state of our Mission in that island, various sums, amounting in all to £250, have been voted to our stations there, by that respectable body.

It would be a gratifying task, not merely to specify these larger donations, with which the Society has been favoured in the course of the last year, but to ennumerate many other proofs which have been given of affectionate regard to its interests. Ministers who have travelled and preached for the Society—friends who have kindly undertaken the care and management of our Auxiliary institutions—Christian females who have devoted their time, their influence, and in some instances, the labour of their hands, to the cause—and children, who have redeemed money which would have been squandered on trifles, and cast it into the treasury of the Lord—might all be mentioned in terms of honest and grateful commendation. But, if these services are rendered from love to the Redeemer, and compassion for souls whom he died to save, an infinitely nobler reward will be bestowed by approving Mercy in the great and final day of account. The superstitious Hindoo, the bigotted Mussulman, and the degraded Negro, cannot recompense you—the overwhelming majority of each class, are neither able to appreciate your labours. or disposed to welcome your messengers—but, whatever may be the immediate result of your exertions, springing from the principles we have mentioned, they shall be recompensed at the resurrection of the just. May we live and act with that day in view, Amen!
